In reply to a question, Mr. Fitugerald said that the government had no official information of the arrest of Capt. Judkins at New York.

With regard to the other question put, the American government had made grave charges against certain letrists officers, but no official account had been received from those officers. He could only say that if occurrences such as those complained of had taken place, they would be viewed with the deepest regret by the government, and immediate explanations given.

The fullest information should be laid before Parliament as early as possible. Meanwhile he had only to add, that orders had been sent out to the officer in command of the Cuban squadron to make every inquiry into the subject, and that the greatest caution and forbestance should be exercised toward vessels bearing the American flag.

ction. Adjourned. THE LATE STEAMBOAT DISASTER ... THE FLOOD.

About sixty of the sufferers by the Pennsylvania saster came up from Cairo to day, principally ound for St. Louis. Many of them, being in a estitute condition, were passed free over the Illi-ois Central Hallroad. nois Central Railroad.

A passenger estimates the number on board the Pennsylvania at the time of the disaster at 450, and thinks there were 256 lost.

Beports from Cairo are of the most alarming cha-Reports from Cairo are of the most slarming character. The water is still rising, and is now running over the Ohio levee in several places. Mr. Ashley, Chief Engineer of the Illinois Central Railroad, gives it as his opinion that one foot more rise will sweep Cairo entirely away.

Mound City is under water. The depot grounds in the highest part of the city are covered, to the depth of four or five inches. Passengers from Mound City are conveyed to the cars a quarter of a mile on flat boats.
